

The Hylar TV Stand with Electric Fireplace is the perfect piece for any entertaining space. Designed to be both functional and fashionable, this contemporary piece features a rich wood grain design that is uniquely crafted to support large televisions. The 23" electric fireplace features a remote control with a timer function to adjust brightness and temperature, heat or no heat options, and a realistic log display. The two open media compartments create a unique semi-floating top shelf, and the two closed cabinet spaces give you the storage space you need.
